

BB&T Insurance Services

is proud to be a preferred vendor of the Humane Society Veterinary Medical Association.

We have a program specifically designed for your business. BB&T Insurance Services is proud to be a preferred vendor of property and casualty insurance solutions to the Humane Society Veterinary Medical Association's members. Our agents are licensed in all 50 states and work with members across the nation.

Your business will be supported by a dedicated team of specialists who are knowledgeable about your industry and will develop a plan specifically designed for you.

Advantages of our program to Humane Society Veterinary Medical Association members:

- Competitive pricing on all lines of coverage including general liability, property, professional, workers' comp, umbrella, auto, equipment
- A dedicated team of specialists from BB&T Insurance Services
- Certificates of insurance within 24 hours
- Proactive renewal planning conducted 60 days prior to the plan expiration date

We are excited to work with you and encourage you to take the time to find out more about BB&T Insurance Services. To speak with the Humane Society Veterinary Medical Association team, please call:

ServiceNow
1-866-249-0293

BB&T Insurance Services